What is a Cookie?

When referring to cookies in this policy, we are referring to HTTP cookies which are small text files stored on your browser when you use websites and applications. We use a mixture of 'session' cookies, (cookies stored in your web browser for a limited time while you are accessing our website) and 'persistent' cookies (which are stored for longer and which are activated each time you revisit our website). There are other technologies that can be used for similar purposes (these include HTML5 Local Storage and Local Shared Objects ("LSO"s). We may use HTML5 Local Storage, LSOs, and similar technologies as well as cookies for authenticating you, keeping track of information you have provided to us, and remembering your preferences.

Types of Cookie

The types of cookie set by this website include the following:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies - These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website and providing services you have asked for.
- Functionality Cookies - These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (e.g. username, language, region) and provide enhanced, more personal features.

Controlling cookies and similar technologies

You can stop cookies being stored on your browser in future or delete any cookies that are already on your browser. To do so you should refer to your browser manufacturer's instructions by clicking "Help" in your browser menu. Information on deleting or controlling browser cookies is available at <http://www.AboutCookies.org>. LSOs are used by the authors of files that are read by Adobe Flash Player and the websites hosting those files. If you wish to control or prevent LSOs being stored on your browser, you should refer to Adobe's website directly <http://www.adobe.com/privacy/flash-player.html>.

You can also control the cookies for www.arm.com, <https://silver.arm.com>, <https://login.arm.com>, <http://infocenter.arm.com>, and <https://cmsis.arm.com> by changing your settings at the bottom of each webpage. These settings will not apply to any other Liv3ly.com websites.

Third party cookies cannot be controlled by changing this website's settings, and if you have javascript disabled, you will also not be able to change this website's settings. Please change cookie settings using your browser settings instead.

Please note that if you disable cookies entirely you may not be able to use certain areas or features of Liv3ly.com website.
